Seven women killed during hitchhiking from town to town

This is reported on 09/02/2017. People of the villages Bornaga and Mertouka located west of Mahalia Kass were displaced from their village due to frequent attacks and women were raped by militias and Janjaweed belonging to the government. They arrived by 2 trucks carrying the displaced people. There is no action taken by the government to help out. There is no attention for them. Recently one was killed. His name [x]
